[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JULY 7.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The President has signed the Pacific Railroad Bill.

The report of the Committee of conference on the tax bill imposes three cents tax on cotton, and retains the provision allowing gas companies and horse railroads to charge the tax to their customers until the 30th of next April.

The Democratic Senators and Representatives have published an address endorsing the call for a National Union Convention, to be held at Philadelphia on the 14th of August.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Senate, after a debate in which Turnbull, Sumner and Fessenden voted to give the majority report [illegible] the reconstruction committee heretofore noticed, but with the understanding that it should not be established as a precedent for the future.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary committee, reported a bill in relation to appointments and removals from office.

A joint resolution for the settlement of military claims against Nevada was passed.

Mr. Wade introduced a joint resolution to guarantee the fifty million loan of the Republic of Mexico, which was referred to the committee on Foreign affairs.

On motion of Mr. Grimes, who said the heat had already prostrated several Senators and threatened others, the Senate adjourned.

The heat has been excessive all over the country, and the reports of sunstrokes are frequent. There is no report as yet of unusual sickness in any part of the country.

The tariff bill has undergone such extensive amendments in the House, generally tending to higher rates, that the Washington special says that hopes are entertained of postponing the whole bill upon the strength of its aggregate unpopularity. Will send you a summary of the bill when it passes the House.

PORTLAND, Me., July 7.—Fears are entertained that gangs of thieves from abroad may attempt to rob some of the banks, and the citizens have armed themselves for the purpose of protecting their property.

More about the Portland Fire.

PORTLAND, Me., July 6.—Generous contributions are hourly arriving for the sufferers by the late fire, and already the work of rebuilding has begun. The total loss is estimated at ten or twelve millions of dollars, and will involve some of the insurance companies in ruin. The whole passage of the fire through the city was made in less than 15 hours, and it was only stopped at the open pastures. In a majority of cases the fire-proof buildings were hardly safer than wooden ones. The Custom House building, in which are the postoffice and the United States stores, built by the Government and thought to be entirely fire proof, and contents, with quite an open space in front and open streets on two sides, were saved, but the upper part is ruined inside, and masses of stone work are falling from the outside. In some cases wooden buildings were saved, while brick buildings on each side were burned. On the east corner, by Myrtle and Cumberland streets, wooden buildings were saved, while every brick building on the square was destroyed. Heretofore we have considered our city particularly safe from conflagration, our fire department excellent, and the celerity with which dangerous fires have been easily subdued secured a confidence quite marvellous, and furnishings. All the old and dangerous buildings are swept out clear, and the city will be rebuilt with the greatest attention to its future security. Our shade trees were a great protection to the houses on the outskirts, and in fact these alone were the means of saving several houses from the flames. The Athenæum Library was destroyed, also the Court House and county buildings. This morning an occasional alarm is sounded. The city was in darkness last night, owing to the gas having been shut off. A rain is falling now, but it is little needed.

Meeting of the Tennessee Legislature.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The Tennessee Legislature met on the 4th according to Gov. Brownlow's proclamation, but adjourned till next week.

There were several very serious disturbances among the negroes at Nashville during the 4th and 5th, in which 20 or 30 were killed and many wounded. In one case 50 white soldiers and more than double that number of blacks, late soldiers, had a regular pitched battle. Several were killed and wounded on both sides. It is thought this will lead to another Congressional investigation.

Odd Fellows' Hall Burned at New Orleans.

The Odd Fellows' Hall, the most massive and magnificent building in New Orleans, except the St. Charles Hotel, was burned on the 5th. The building, including the furniture, was valued at $300,000 and insured for $35,000.

An Address to the Fenian Brotherhood.

General Sweeney, under date of St. Albans, the 4th inst., publishes an address to the Fenian Brotherhood in America, in which he defends his conduct in the recent raid on Canadian territory. He recommends the organization of Circles and formation of military companies by the members under their chosen leaders.

The Proposition to Annex British Provinces.

The bill introduced into Congress to establish the conditions for the admission of the British North American Provinces into the Union has aroused an angry feeling in Government circles in Canada. The bill is looked upon as a bid to the Provinces to throw off their allegiance to Great Britain and join what is termed the political confusion of the United States. The popular feeling is against any such steps.

Senator Lane not Dead, as Reported.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Leavenworth dispatches announced the suicide and death of Senator Lane with great particularity, and his obituary was published all over the country. It was stated that he was dying and could not live out the night. It is now stated, under date of the 6th, that his condition is favorable, and that there are hopes of his recovery.

Congressional Nominations in Illinois—Richmond Whig on the National Johnson Convention.

John F. Farnsworth was yesterday re-nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Second Illinois District.

The Richmond Whig, while approving the proposed National Union Convention at Philadelphia, says that for the Southern States to send formal delegates to occupy official seats would unavoidably embarrass the Convention. We foresee very clearly that in maintaining their declaration of sentiments and opinions, some things would have to be omitted in deference to Southern delegates that would weaken the movement in the North, or if not omitted would compel such an expression of dissent on the part of those delegates as would render it better that they had not been present. The Whig concludes: Fortunately there is no need for Northern States to go into convention to make known their feelings. As between the radicals and conservatives, President Johnson and his antagonists, there is but one feeling and one voice on this question. All the radical sympathizers in the late Confederate States, if thrown into one Congressional district, could not carry it against the resident population.

Mexican News.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The Herald's Mexican correspondence, written from the City of Mexico 23d, Vera Cruz 25th, Tampico 1st, goes to show that the Mexican people were becoming more and more intent in the cause of the independence of their country. The Imperial forces, French and natives, had sustained a number of defeats of greater or less severity on the field, and the cause of Maximilian was looking gloomy in consequence. Santa Anna has engrossed a large share of public attention. The Mexican liberals proclaimed the theory that an understanding had been come to between the Emperor Napoleon and the [illegible] President, by which Maximilian would be removed and Santa Anna restored and elected President, the United States holding itself ready to approve of eventualities arising from change of election.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The Post's money article says: Owing to the excessive heat there was little doing. Gold is quiet and more plentiful. Cotton—36c for middling. Flour—rather heavy.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—A letter from the Governor, Imperialist, of the department of Tepic, received by the last steamer in this city, states that Corona has withdrawn with most of his forces to Culiacan, leaving, however, some small detachments near Mazatlan, for the purpose of annoying and watching the French. Since the battle of the 5th of May he has made no movements or attacks. An order has been issued for the commencement of an active campaign by the Imperialist forces in Sinaloa and Sonora, so that peace and order may be established there.

The Pioneer Society held their annual election of officers yesterday. The struggle was for the secretaryship, the candidates for the office being the incumbent L. R. Lull and D. H. Haskell. The number of votes was greater than ever the society polled at any previous election, and had not the polls closed at 7 P. M. a much larger vote would have been cast. The following gentlemen were elected: President, R. J. Tiffany; Treasurer, J. P. Turner; Secretary, L. R. Lull. The result having been announced, Messrs. P. B. [illegible], J. L. C. Wadsworth and H. B. Livingston were appointed a committee to wait on the President elect and escort him to the rooms of the association. On his appearance the Society greeted him heartily, to which he replied in eloquent and felicitous language. The adjoining apartments were then thrown open, displaying long tables filled with a variety of edibles and fluids. The banquet was sumptuous. The Society showed their appreciation of the liberality and taste of the officers elect by doing it full justice. Around the festive board the Pioneers indulged in speeches, in reminiscences of times which tried their souls and bodies, and in an interchange of those friendly sentiments which the members so cordially entertain for one another. Among the speeches made were those of the retiring President P. B. Cornwall, ex-Presidents Winans and Sutton, Vice President elect Chapin, Secretary Lull, Col. Hiram Leonard, Major Gillespie, etc. The Society commences on the new term free from all debt and numbering more members than at any previous period in its history.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—Reuben Clark, late architect of the State Capitol, died at Stockton, on the 4th inst., in the Asylum where he had been sent to receive medical treatment for a softening of the brain.

Capt. Barclay died suddenly of heart disease in this city yesterday. He formerly commanded the steamers [illegible], Queen City, [illegible] and other boats running between here and Sacramento and Stockton.

Judge Dwinelle is ill to-day. Court adjourned until Monday.

A. P. Perkins, a photographer on Kearny street, was arrested last evening by officer [illegible] on a charge of printing obscene pictures.

Joseph Goodson was arrested to-day by officers Lees and Ellis on a charge of the most infamous character, preferred by the brother of a girl whom he is said to have ruined. The girl, it is stated, is his own niece.

Military Order Concerning Arizona Mails.

The following order has been issued from the office of Colonel [illegible]: It being understood that the only United States mail communication now provided for between California and Arizona is by the Fort Mojave road,

"The commanding officer at Fort Yuma will direct the Quartermaster of the post to employ an expressman weekly to San Diego to connect with the mail at that place from Los Angeles. Official communications for Fort Yuma, [illegible] the headquarters [illegible] District of Arizona at [illegible], Fort McDowell and all parts of the District south of the Gila, will be sent via San Diego, and the military express is hereby ordered to be established. Official communications for all points north of the Gila, except those above mentioned, will be sent by the United States mail from Fort Mojave."

Sympathy for the Portland Sufferers.

As there is great concern in this city in regard to the sufferings of the people of Portland by the terrible conflagration that has swept over that city, and as it is undesirable to make partial and irregular efforts based upon the meagre information thus far received, the Mayor of San Francisco has sent the following message by telegraph, and requests that citizens will wait till an answer is received, when a general and public action will be taken:

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—To the people of Portland: [illegible] Answer. (Signed)
H. P. COON, Mayor.

A telegram was received from Judge Blake, Portland, Oregon, this morning, stating that he was unavoidably detained and could not reach here until the 11th. In consequence of his detention all matters which were to have come up in the Probate Court before the 11th inst. were postponed until the 16th.

Peter Kellerman, a German and keeper of a lager beer saloon on Kearny street, died suddenly yesterday morning of congestion of the lungs.

Advices from China—The Codfish Fleet.

Advices from Foo Chow, China, dated May last, favorably represent the tea crop this year as regards the quality. The prices paid, however, indicate an advance from last year of six taels on Congous, and ten taels on Oolong.

The first vessel of the codfish fleet from the Ochotsk sea arrived to-day, with 31,000 fish, equal to about 60 tons. The fleet this season numbers about 16 vessels against nine last season, and three the year before.

The contract for building the new wharf of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company at South Beach has been let and work commenced. The wharf is to be 650 feet long, by 130 feet in width, extending the whole length of blocks seven and eight, along the water front of First street, and will be completed by the first of January. It will afford accommodations not only for the Panama line of steamers, but also for the new line of steamers to China, the pioneer of which, the Colorado, will start on its first trip promptly on the first Tuesday of January, 1867.

In Memory of General Scott.

The flags through the city are at half mast to-day, and guns are being fired every half hour from the different fortifications in respect to General Scott.

The Markets.

Flour—Beyond the usual jobbing trade the market drags heavily. Superfine hf sks ℘ 100 lbs, $4 75@5; grades $5@5 25, extra hf sks, $5 25@5 50, qr sacks, $5 50@5 75.

Wheat—Sales include 200 sacks baker's extra at $1 65; 1,600 sks good coast, in two lots, at $1 75; 400 sks old private, 200 sks very choice new, private.

Barley—A small lot of 200 sacks very choice feed, sold at 85c ℘ 100 lbs.

Oats—500 sks fair, and 100 sks choice, at $1 60@1 90 ℘ 100 pounds.

Potatoes—Sales of 600 Bags, in lots, at 50 cents per 100 pounds.

Onions—Small lots sold at 37½ cents per 100 pounds.

The general trade during the week past has been remarkably light, and the week closes quietly in commercial circles.

The arrival of a fleet of eight or ten vessels last night, principally from Europe, with merchandise will, it is hoped, give a new impetus to trade during the coming week.

Money Market.

Latest gold quotations from New York were dated at a late hour yesterday, and give the price at 154@154½, showing a little more firmness than for the previous day, which is probably owing to the fact that Friday was steamer day in that city, and there was consequently more demand for Europe. No quotations were given for Sterling Exchange. The last price given on the day previous was 108@108¾. Receipts of treasure from the interior in about the same ratio as for the last six months. The receipts from California and Nevada foot up $20,052,764. The market for exchange and bullion for Tuesday's steamer has but fairly opened yet. The shipment will probably be light in comparison with the last steamer, for the market is pretty scarce of bullion. Leading bankers quote coin drafts on the Atlantic cities at 2½ per cent, and currency drafts at 44 premium on gold.

Mining Shares—Legal Tenders.

The mining stock market has recovered a little, and better prices have been realized from the morning board yesterday. Yellow Jacket shows an advance of $42 50; Belcher, $21 50; Overman, $14; Hale & Norcross from last sales, $10; Ophir, $3; Bullion, $1. Imperial on the contrary declined $21 50; Spring Valley was sold at 60. Legal Tenders are quoted at 70 bid and 71 asked.

FROM THE NORTH.

Murder at Seattle.

SEATTLE, June 7.—News was received here on the evening of the Fourth, that the wife of William Powell, formerly seaman on board the U. S. steamer Saranac, had been murdered at Alki Point, where she resided with her husband. A party went from here to investigate the matter, and found a gun on the portico floor, which was all stained with blood. They entered the house and found the body of the woman on the floor, and her husband lying with his head on her breast, apparently asleep. The party then retreated outside to consider the course to pursue, heard footsteps within. Fearing the man would escape, they entered the house again, when to their surprise the man was lying as before, although they were confident they had heard him walk. They bound him, and with difficulty aroused him from pretended slumber. They brought him to Seattle and delivered him to the sheriff. An inquest was held yesterday. The woman was shot apparently with a shot-gun, the shot entering her head at the extreme left side of the forehead, passing through, causing instant death. It is stated the prisoner has often threatened to kill the deceased, and fired guns close to her to frighten her.

The friends of Mr. William Lloyd Garrison propose raising a fund of $50,000, to be presented to him in token of their appreciation of his labors in the anti-slavery cause.

No wonder the Copperhead fellows protest,
On escaping from sermon or prayers,
'Gainst "mixing religion with politics so"—
For they never mix any with theirs!

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 9, 1866.

"Radical Oppression" and Southern Liberty.

If that class of persons who never cease to denounce the "Radicals" because of their alleged unjust and oppressive conduct toward the people (whites) of the South, would suffer their attention to be directed for a moment to the systematic forms of oppression which the class they are pleading for have prepared for the freedmen and put in operation against them, they might, possibly, through shame, become less blatant in the cause of the late rebels of whom they are self-appointed champions. It is a very ancient maxim that "they who seek equity must do equity", yet in forgetfulness of this principle, men who complain because the rights which they have utterly and voluntarily forfeited are in part withheld from them, undertake to fasten upon others a system of government which is nothing better, and indeed nothing different from a complete despotism. They claim the fullest rights for themselves while denying the most common rights to other men. In their view it is an outrage that they are not restored at once to full privileges under the Government to which they have proven traitors; but perfectly just and proper for them to withhold from their late slaves all rights whatsoever. They denounce the Government because it hesitates to confer the full rights and powers of citizens upon its enemies, and merely insists on protecting the natural and civil rights of its friends. Each of the Southern States has "accepted the situation" by framing a new slave code much more complete than anything of former times. Those of South Carolina and Mississippi are especially worthy of being studied by those Northern men who are so greatly distressed by the "tyranny of the Radicals." The authors of these codes evidently labored under the belief that it required positive provisions of law to keep the blacks down so that the whites would be in no danger of falling below them. The great State of South Carolina provides by law that "all persons who make contracts for service shall be known as servants, and those with whom they contract shall be known as masters." This provision is no doubt intended to maintain the dignity of the white race and to be a constant reminder to all, of the superiority of the chivalry. After having thus provided for the preservation of the name of slavery, the code next makes provision for the perpetuation of the forms which distinguish the institution; chief among which, and naturally first in order, comes the humanizing custom of flogging. Flogging is the penalty the negro receives for "keeping fire-arms, (of course this is constitutional,) for selling spirits, for selling farm produce without the leave of the "master," for pursuing the trade of an artisan or mechanic without a special license, for selling goods as a shopkeeper or engaging in any other trade without first paying for the privilege of so doing. No negro is allowed to come into South Carolina from another State without paying the penalty which it is the pride of the knights of the lash to artistically inflict. The code of Mississippi is very similar, but in some respects goes quite beyond that of South Carolina. It provides that all persons of color who may become liable for fines and forfeitures (and the law is so constructed that the negro cannot keep clear of its entanglements and the resulting fines,) shall be sold for service to the highest bidder until the liabilities are discharged. It is by enacting laws like these that the "reconstructed" prove their acquiescence in the abolition of slavery and their acceptance of the situation. It is by this treatment of others that they vindicate their own claims to generous treatment by the Government. It becomes people who have so exact an appreciation of the demands of justice, and who in their conduct toward their fellow men so entirely obey its dictates, to boldly claim as a right the privilege which they have forfeited, and while they arrogate the highest rights to themselves, to deny the enjoyment even of inferior rights to a class of population as numerous as themselves.

Why Not?

We take the following from the Herald:

> The Alta says the President takes the position that voters should be the basis of representation, instead of population, in order that the Southern States should be deprived of the right of representing negroes, to whom they deny all political rights.
> The President takes no such position, and there is not a Democrat in the State of Oregon who would endorse it.

The President has several times expressed himself substantially as asserted by the Alta. He has said further, that a constitutional amendment embodying this principle, is the only one which, in his judgment, ought to be adopted now.

We are prepared to believe the Herald's assertion that "there is not a Democrat in Oregon who would endorse" this measure. Yet why should they refuse to sanction it? Why should they uphold the Southern States in their claim to the "right of representing those to whom they deny all political rights? Why do the Democrats of Oregon insist on the perpetuation of this manifest injustice toward the people of the North? Simply and plainly because they know that theirs is the dominant party in the Southern States, and because they desire the Southern Democrat to wield double the power in this Government that is possessed by the Northern Unionist. To obtain this result, they oppose a change of that inequitable rule of representation which transforms a government by the people into a government by an oligarchy. The rule the Democrats contend for, is directly opposed to the principle of equality of political rights. It is in antagonism with our form of Government, and will not therefore be tolerated by the people. The new constitutional amendment will right this wrong.

As "there is not a Democrat in Oregon who will endorse" the amendment, so there is not a Unionist but who will endorse it. Let the Democratic party of this State therefore reflect on the fact that our Legislature is Union in both branches, and see what consolation it can derive from this not of profitable meditation.

The question of the day is: If the negro is not fit for the direct exercise of political power, how happens it that he is fit to exercise it indirectly? If he is not fit to vote for himself, he is not fit to have others vote for him. If he is not fit to be represented (and he is not represented unless he votes) he is not a fit instrument through whom other persons may obtain greater political power and a larger representation. If he cannot be trusted to vote for himself, others should be relieved of the responsibility of voting for him. The intelligent use of a single ballot is quite as much as most men are equal to. To vote for two or three persons besides himself is too grave a duty and too serious a responsibility to rest on any citizen.

A letter from Idaho City to the Boise Statesman relating some of the artful dodges of the Idaho Democracy, thus speaks of an innocent piece of strategy imported there from Oregon:

> "Every straw, no matter how short, small or dishonorable, is grabbed at by the Democrats. Even the agent of the Oregon Herald represented that sheet as a Union paper in order to get subscribers. Many of them would like to see Mr Felton weigh back."

The Herald a Union paper! Felton is evidently a maker of "gooks." As a specimen brick that was very good of Felton. Felton is a "phunny kuss." A strategist is Felton.

NEW PAPER.—The Evening Telegraph is the name of a new paper that has been started at Victoria, the first two numbers of which we have received. Its editorial management indicates ability, while its news columns give proof of enterprise on the part of its publishers.

STATE ITEMS.

A strictly reliable correspondent at Baker City writes us under date of June 24th that the OREGONIAN arrives at that place by the stage which carries the mail and express and is sold by an expressman for fifty cents a copy from three to ten days before subscribers get theirs by mail. Our correspondent wants to know "if there is no remedy for this gross imposition. The only remedy we can suggest is the appointment of competent postmasters, the employment of capable mail contractors and honest expressmen—all of which matters are beyond our control. If our correspondent will furnish the names of persons guilty of dereliction or collusion of this kind for the benefit of private parties, we will give them an airing.

We are informed that the Copperheads of Baker county nominated and elected a foreigner for sheriff who has not been naturalized. Of course he cannot hold the office.

At Salem, on the morning of the 4th, some members of the Light Battery commenced firing a salute. After three or four discharges, the piece went off prematurely burning the hands of one of the gunners, how seriously we have not learned.

A meeting of the Woolen Manufacturing Company at the Dalles, was held last Saturday evening, to make the necessary arrangements for incorporating &c. The subscriptions to the enterprise now amount to $41,000. The contemplated capital stock will be probably $150,000.

Times are very dull at Canyon City. Waters are very high, consequently the miners are not able to do much work on their creek and river claims.

A correspondent at Auburn under date of July 1st, gives us the following summary of accidents occurring in the mines of Baker and Grant since May 4th: On the 4th of May W. H. Bentley had his leg broken by the caving of a bank, on Burnt river. About the same time, in Mormon Basin a man, name unknown, had his leg fractured. About two weeks later a man named Thomas Connell, was killed, at Auburn Camp by the caving of a bank. About the same time, a Frenchman, name unknown, on Olive Creek, had both shoulders dislocated by the falling of a tree. On the 16th of June, a man named Davis, in Powder river valley, fell into a fire and was so severely burned that he died in three weeks, after intense suffering.

We a letter from Umatilla, which states that the river is rising again at that place. On the 6th it was within four inches of being as high as during the former rise. On the 3d, the mercury went up to 105°.

A raft broke loose above Umatilla on the 4th and floating down struck a house on the beach and knocked it off its foundation. Damage slight.

At the Dalles the river is again rising. The water Friday night was six inches deep on the floor of the "Umatilla House," and only lacked about two inches of running over the railroad track at the company's bridge.

Wm Watson who was badly wounded by the premature discharge of a cannon at the Dalles on the 4th, we learn, is getting along much better than was at first expected. About five inches of the fore-arm was amputated. The other hand and arm are doing well and all fears of losing them are now dispelled.

A man named McDaniel, a violent copperhead from Polk county, raised a row at Salem on the Fourth, by indulging in disloyal and disgusting remarks while the procession was passing. He was treated pretty roughly by the bystanders and finally marched out of town and across the river. One Watkins, another copperhead, interfering in McDaniel's behalf, was treated to some bruises also. At one time, a pretty general and serious row seemed to be imminent. McDaniel was using very contemptuous language in relation to the National flag and those who were marching under it.

A correspondent at the Dalles, July 6th, says "By Canyon stage to-night, I learn that the Indians have made another raid on the settlers near Canyon City. During Wednesday night the 27th ult., a large party of Indians made a descent upon a ranch about a mile and a half from town, fired several shots at the settlers, but fortunately wounding no one. They succeeded, however, in running off some cattle. They then turned their course toward the main John Day river and came down to Mr. Wm. Luce's about five miles west of Canyon City and run off some work cattle and cows. After stealing what they wanted they went in the direction of the South Fork. A messenger was sent forthwith to Camp Watson for a detachment of soldiers to be sent after the marauders. The commandant of the Post sent out forty men in the direction taken by the "Los," but what success they have met with, I have not learned.

The Albany Journal of the 7th says: On yesterday afternoon a little girl about eight years old, daughter of Mr. Lost, residing first door south of J. A. Crawford's dwelling, was so severely burned by her clothes having accidentally caught fire, that her recovery is regarded as very uncertain. Her clothes caught fire in the house she ran into the yard, when her cries attracted the attention of Mrs Lyle, (residing near by) who immediately ran to the child's rescue and succeeded in smothering the flames after severely burning her own hand; other assistance came and the fire was extinguished. No one was present when the child's clothes caught on fire except her little sister, six years old. They are motherless children, and their father was absent at the time at work.

The publication day of the Albany Journal has been changed from Friday to Saturday of each week.

The body of John Bauerlin has been found in the river, near where his hat was found on the bank, at Corvallis. The body presented some marks of violence, but nothing has transpired to fix the guilt of his murder upon any one, and the parties under arrest have been discharged.

The following are the names of officers installed for Albany Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., for the present term: E. S. Merrill, N. G.; D. Wortham, V. G.; W. A. McPherson, Secretary; W. W. Parrish, Treasurer.

The Journal speaks of the Musical and Floral Festival at Albany on the 4th as "the most magnificent exhibition ever given at Albany, combining the beauties of both art and nature in rich profusion."

The race advertised for the 5th, says the Journal, came off over the Albany Course according to previous arrangement—distance, single dash of one mile. The following named horses were entered: Luper's colt carried 80 pounds; Cherokee, 125; Red Jacket, 117; Gore's horse, 121; Wood's colt, 121. The horses got a good start without excitement, on first trial. Red Jacket made a bold dash for the lead which he gained in fine style before he reached half way to the first quarter mark, and held his position throughout, widening the space by fifteen feet, time one minute and fifty-two and a half seconds. Luper's horse was second; the others were beaten from 25 to 30 yards.

FROM THE OREGON MINING REGIONS.

We clip the following from the news columns and correspondence of the Mountaineer of the 6th inst:

THE MIDDLE FORK MINES.

A reliable gentleman who has just returned from the Middle Fork mines, expresses the opinion that with another season these mines will give employment to from two or three thousand men. The fact, is established, that a good mining district has been discovered. The placer diggings are extensive and will afford employment for from one to three years, by which time the quartz claims will be opened, and from these those who have been on the ground have "great expectations."

OLIVE CREEK.

Companies are now engaged in mining along the entire length of Olive creek—a distance of eight or nine miles—to its junction with Clear Creek, which is much the larger stream of the two. This latter stream has not as yet been much prospected; gold, has, however, been found on it in quantities to encourage the belief that when the mountains are heavily populated Clear Creek will be a name among the mining streams of the Columbia Basin.

GRANITE CREEK.

Four or five miles below the mouth of Olive Creek the stream known as Bull's Run comes into Clear Creek, from the north side. The northern branch of Bull's Run is Granite Creek. These streams interlock with the northern branches of Burnt River. The discovery of mines here in 1862 diverted even a portion of those who had started for Florence and Salmon River. * * * *

There are many good spots of surface washings about Granite Creek, and some gulches which have yielded handsomely ever since the mines were discovered.

Towards the north are many larger branches of the North John Day, which are as yet imperfectly prospected, and in some of these, claims have been worked for years.

DISTRIBUTION OF MINING POPULATION.

There are about one hundred and fifty miners on the head waters of Burnt River; and twice as many more on Olive Creek and its gulches. Granite Creek has about one hundred and twenty-five operative miners. There are two or three small companies working on Clear Creek, below the mouth of Bull's Run.

FROM THE UPPER COLUMBIA.

A correspondent at Colville furnishes us the names of the persons drowned at Death Rapids on the 10th of May. The manner of the accident has been published. As near as can be ascertained, they were:

Morrick Miller, Greenwood Valley, Cal; Robt. Magro, Drytown, Amador, Cal; C. G. Kerby, Canada; A. T. Crim, Ohio; Joseph Report, Canada, Wm Caldwell, Victoria, V. I.; Jno G. McKiel, Cowichan, V. I.; Jno. Fordman, London; Rich'd. Harvey, Cornwall, Eng.; Mr Edwards and nephew, Victoria, V. I.; Little "Jo," of Victoria, a German; three Frenchmen, names unknown, nine saved, and left in a destitute condition. They came down to Laport, two miles, to the steamboat landing, and stopped there until the steamer came up, which furnished them a passage down towards Colville. Mr. Edwards' body was found a few miles below Laport, and buried, being the only body found up to last accounts.

COLVILLE MATTERS.

The Mountaineer of the 6th has the following:

From a gentleman who arrived from Colville on Wednesday, we learn that the mines on the Upper Columbia continue to pay good wages. The snow had entirely disappeared from the country around La Porte. Capt White's boat is making regular trips, carrying a considerable amount of freight for the Big Bend mines. Considerable rain had fallen in Colville valley during the past month, and the crops in the valley are looking well.

FROM IDAHO.

The Boise City Statesman contains the following:

THE LEONORA LEDGE.

A letter from Rocky Bar says: At Yuba, the Leonora lode has been proved to be the richest ever found. The remarkably rich seam was at first about an inch in width and in sinking thirty feet has widened to fourteen inches. In this seam there is absolutely more gold than rock, being about $300,000 to the ton, and the other parts of the ledge, although varying, often as high as one ounce of gold to one pound of rock. In the rich seam the gold lies in plates or layers about the thickness of two sheets of writing paper, with a sort of clayey quartz between, usually three or four times as thick as the gold. Col. Preston is one of the fortunate owners. This may appear a 'big story,' but it nevertheless is true, and I have the word of an assayer that he has seen other rock from Yuba that was eighty-five per cent. gold. There has been considerable work done on Yuba lodes, and tunnels and shafts run and sunk, and the lodes prospect well, are well defined, &c., but more of this after I take a cruise in that direction.

The Statesman says editorially: There is no mistake about the richness of the prospects of the Leonora lodge at Yuba, spoken of by our correspondent from Rocky Bar. We have seen several persons from there, and they all tell a bigger story than he does. It is probably the richest thing yet discovered, as it is much more extensive than the famous pocket found in Montana last year.

The Raleigh Standard denounces a proposition to erect a monument to the Rebel General Stuart. It says it has nowhere heard of a plan to thus honor the memory of Judge Pettigrew, the Charleston Unionist, and objects to wasting money on dead traitors which might help to feed many starving Unionists.

FROM VICTORIA

We obtain the following from the Victoria Evening Telegraph of the 2d and 3d of July:

Yesterday morning a young man named Thos Bottrell, a brother of Mr Matthew Bottrell, butcher, of this city, was accidentally drowned in Cowichan river. It appears that the unfortunate man was on horseback, endeavoring to lead a young bullock across the stream at a point above the usual ford, near the forks of the river, and it is conjectured that he was pulled off his horse by the resistance of the animal, as the first intimation of the occurrence was the noise of his splashing in the water. A young man named D. Lunas, hearing the sound, ran to the spot, but found poor Bottrell had disappeared beneath the current, and although every effort was made the body was not recovered for full 15 minutes when it was brought up from the bottom by some Indians. The poor young fellow was only 2? years of age, and was much esteemed by all his acquaintances. He had been two or three times to Cariboo, and was known to many of the miners. His brother went out this morning to bring in the body, and will call at Saanich on his way out to request A. C. Anderson, Esq., J. P., to hold an inquest.

H. M. surveying steamer Beaver, Lieutenant Commander Pender, returned yesterday afternoon from a cruise in our northern waters. The Beaver has been engaged for some time in surveying some of the waters round Queen Charlotte Island, which vicinity she left on the 13th ult. On the 20th ult she met the steamer Otter bound up, and at Fort Rupert met the schooner Goldstream, also bound north. The news from the Queen Charlotte coal mine is without interest; twelve men are at work at the new tunnel at the bottom of the hill, and expect to strike the seam in a few weeks.

The imports to Victoria from Oregon for the month of June amounted to $4,295, from Washington Territory, $14,093.

THE FIDELITER.—An untoward incident prevented the arrival of the steamship Fideliter at this port on Saturday night, on her regular voyage from Victoria. Collector Adams, acting under instructions from superior officers, was compelled to have the cargo and passengers transferred at Astoria to the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's steamer John H. Couch, it having been decided that foreign vessels could not come to Portland. We think we know that this was an unpleasant duty for Collector Adams, but feel that he could do no different. It was known one day last week that this interruption would occur, and Mr. Kohl, owner of the Fideliter, was advised of it by telegraph, but the dispatch not having reached him early enough to stay the departure of the steamer, she came on and the cargo and passengers were brought to this city as before stated. Arriving in the evening, Capt. Erskine was informed that instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury had been sought the day previous in regard to the matter, and in answer to a dispatch from Mr. W. S. Ladd, Mr. Henry Failing and Mr. John Green, had sent a message as follows to Collector Adams:

WASHINGTON, July 7, 1866.

To the Collector of Customs of the District of Oregon, care of W. S. Ladd, Portland.

You will, until further advised, permit foreign vessels with cargo off Portland, to unload there under the eye of the Surveyor, and to make formal entry and pay duty at Astoria.

H. McCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

With a letter to Collector Adams containing the dispatch above mentioned Capt. Erskine left this city yesterday morning by the steamship Orizaba for Astoria, intending to bring the Fideliter up to this port to-day. This is one of the serious obstacles in the way of the progress and advancement of our commercial intercourse with foreign nations. Here is a city as eligible in a commercial point as any other on the coast of the Pacific. Portland stands in a position to command as large a traffic as any or Philadelphia, New Orleans, or ports similarly located, and the interests of the country and State depend upon this as a sea port eminently enlarging, yet we are denied the privileges accorded to all other ports in the country, many of which are are not of very significant importance as compared to Portland. This city has struggled along in the face of adverse fortunes without material assistance from any quarter, until to-day we find her the acknowledged rival of St. Louis, upon the Atlantic side of the continent, and but a very few paces behind the most wonderful city of the Pacific coast. The spirit of this paper has been to advance suggestions relative to the state of things likely to befall us unless some plans were advised to award the city its just claims, and entitle it to all the benefits of a port of entry. The most successful competitor for the immense trade of China, now about to be inaugurated, will be that port which is favored with such a distinction by Congress. Within our present limits it would be a vain effort for the citizens of Oregon to attempt to put their hand into this important movement, notwithstanding nature has done so much to favor our region by giving us a river and harbor not excelled in the United States, and currents of wind and water that lead in the most direct course toward the great Empire about to be explored by American commerce. We are sorry to see our city in such a strait, and her progress so unjustly impeded, and trust that the affair just transpiring, may spur our people on to renewed energies in their own behalf. It is now confidently believed that we shall not soon obtain to a port of entry, and that all our shipping will, of necessity, be confined to American vessels, but in the case of the Fideliter we think the present owners are entitled to all the privileges granted to owners of American crafts. When Mr. Kohl purchased the Fideliter, as we have been shown, she was a wreck, sunken to the bottom. Mr. K. is an American citizen. He raised this steamer and with laborers employed in the territory of the the United States, using American timber, and American iron, repaired her, expending a much larger sum of money than is required by the laws of Congress to entitle the ship to an American register, and we are of opinion that if all the facts are made known at Washington City he will not again meet with so great an interruption to the important trade in which he has embarked the fine little steamer. There seems to be a disposition on the part of some persons to censure Collector Adams for his action in the matter, but we deem this all wrong. Mr. Adams has done no more than is expected of officers, according to their bonds.

THE NEW DREDGER.—On Saturday last we took a look at the machinery for the new Dredger, now being constructed at the Oregon Iron Works. Superintendent Walker evidently understands his business, and, with the aid of Mr. Bloomfield, is giving the city a very valuable machine, with which to clear obstructions from the mouth of this river. Mr. Walker has superintended the building of three dredgers previous to this one, at New York city, Boston and San Francisco, and all his past experience is now being used for the benefit of our young and enterprising city. The work upon which he is engaged is one which must be done, and the committee on river improvements have undoubtedly saved much further delay and embarrassment by putting an experienced man at the head of it. All cities generally pay dearly for experimental lessons, but thus far, we must say Portland has escaped many very great expenses from undertaking tasks that could not be successfully performed. The improvement of our streets is a fair subject with which to illustrate the correct method of the operations governing this city. The annual Message of Mayor Failing, recently submitted to the Common Council, fully illustrates the impracticability of improving streets upon any other system, without entailing upon the city a heavy burden of indebtedness. An improvement of the kind now in process, for keeping the Willamette river open, cannot be too well done, and from what we have seen of the operations we judge that every necessary item to complete the work will be furnished. The machinery is better, in every way, than people are generally willing to give our mechanics credit for. We are firmly of the opinion that the boiler, to go with the machinery, is superior to any ever made on the Pacific Coast. The total cost of the Dredger, including everything, will be but a little more than $10,000, and it will be ready to perform service by the 1st day of August.

ABOUT OVERLAND.—The Owyhee Avalanche, a paper "set up" to grind out "enthusiasm" for the horned-toad and sage brush trail known as the "Chico route," thinks "the funeral" none of theirs this year. Perhaps so, friend Wasson; but hold on a bit—you will put on the badge of mourning soon enough. The Red Bluff Independent doubts the truth of our statement that freight is being taken from Portland to Ruby City at seven cents per pound. Facts are stubborn, however, neighbor, and you will be sorry to see that business men do not concur in your apprehensions of the certainty of what we tell you. The Chico route was never calculated by nature as a fit one to compete with steam, and notwithstanding the enormous expenditure of money to keep it before the people it must soon flicker out. The California Steam Navigation Company, we are informed, are taking freight up the Sacramento river free for their pet route, and yet the difference is in favor of the Columbia river. The price of freight at the present time, from San Francisco to Ruby City via Portland and the Columbia river is seven cents one mill and a half per pound. Figure for yourself now: From San Francisco to Portland by steamship $3 per ton, from Portland to Umatilla by steamer one and a half cents per pound; from Umatilla to Farewell Bend by teams, four cents per pound; from Farewell Bend to Owyhee crossing, by steamer, one half cent per pound, and from the crossing to Ruby City one cent per pound.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—DEADY JUSTICE, SATURDAY, JULY 7, 1866. United States vs. William Wilson. Indictment for uttering forged checks. Demurrer to indictment because it charged two distinct offences. Demurrer overruled. The act of Congress requiring that all similar offences should be joined in one indictment. Defendant pleaded not guilty, and the trial set for ten o'clock Monday morning. Order for a venire for twenty-four trial jurors, returnable at the same time. Mansfield vs the Oregon—suit in admiralty for non-delivery of freights. In this case the court delivered an opinion in writing. The conclusion was that the ship must be deemed to have secured the package, and not having delivered it, was liable for the value of its contents. The court found the value as alleged by the libellant, $1,172, and added interest on that sum from February 2d, 1865, at 10 per cent. per annum; decree for this amount, with costs and disbursements. The claimant prayed an appeal to the Circuit Court, which was allowed.

DEPARTURE OF THE ORIZABA.—The steamship Orizaba, Capt. William Metzger, Commander, left this port at 8 o'clock, A. M., yesterday morning for San Francisco, with the following cargo: 2,200 quarter sacks flour, 246 gunnies of bacon, 14 sacks quartz, 91 half-barrels dried apples, 56 boxes of eggs, 132 bales wool, 20 cases of boots, 15 coops chickens, 11 half-barrels butter, 9 barrels of salmon, 25 hides, 2 packages deer skins, 2 do. calf skins, 3 bales of furs, 2 cases of hams, 156 empty barrels, 5 boxes cherries, 20 cases merchandise, 5 bales merchandise, 25 empty ale barrels. Her treasure list was by far the largest that has left our city the present season, aggregating over $600,000 shipped as follows:

Wells, Fargo & Co	$316,000
Ladd & Tilton	56,000
Goldsmith Bro.	30,000
Other shippers, and in private hands	200,000
Total	$602,000

WORK FOR THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The County of Multnomah now have nearly completed, on the block west of the Public Plaza in this city, a most magnificent structure for the purposes of a Court House, County Jail offices and residence of the jailer. The city are about to improve Salmon street, running west from the river and adjacent to the county property on the north. The new Court House is not provided with drainage, and to allow it to remain so would be an error. It occurs to us that this is the proper time to provide suitable drainage for the building, and if it is done simultaneous with the street improvement, less expense will attend the matter. But if allowed to go by the time of improving Salmon street will it not entail upon the county and the city additional labor, and a consequent greater increase of expenditure? This is a necessary work, and it should be performed now.

HORSE KILLED.—On Saturday a number of horses that had been confined within an enclosure at the southern extremity of this city, broke away, and stampeded down Sixth street at a rapid rate. When near Morrison street one of them fell, and ruptured some of the blood vessels from the effects of which it died, and the owner hauled the animal beyond the western suburbs. The horse was one of two belonging to a farmer from Yamhill county, who had come to the city for the purpose of seeking employment with his team, on the street improvements, and was valued at $200. With its mate the team was probably worth $400.

THE INDIGENT SICK AND PAUPERS.—The County Court awarded the contract for keeping county paupers of the county for the series of four years, to Messrs. Hawthorne & Loryea, paying them the sum of eight dollars per week for adults, persons under twelve years half that sum. Provided, however, if the county shall, at any time after the expiration of two years from this date, be prepared to take charge of and provide for such persons otherwise than as per said contract, the county shall so do.

COME AGAIN.—The Bleisdell Brothers troop of Swiss Bell Ringers have advertised to come again to see us and be seen. In addition to the attraction of the Bells, they have a celebrated painting of Irish scenery which they term the "Hibernicon, or a complete tour through Ireland." They will perform at Lappeus & Knowles' Hall, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the 12th, 13th and 14th. Read the advertisement.

IN MEMORIAM.—The Hebrew Observer, of San Francisco dated June 29th, has the following reference to Mr. Leon Cahn, late of this city, deceased: "Mr. Leon Cahn was a son of R. Meyer Cahn of Ingwiller, Alsace, and brother of Cahn Bros. of this city. The departed was an old resident of Portland, Oregon, where he was much respected in the community at large, for his personal solidity of character, for his liberality with his means and his benevolence. He was possessed of a deep fund of religious impressions, and of an earnest desire to live a truly religious life. He had settled his business on Sabbath days, and [illegible] in his family that nation and religion might be for the continuance and restoration of which the [illegible] feelings [illegible]. He [illegible] with his family to his native country there to enjoy those religious privileges which the peculiarities of this country seem to be so unpropitious to. In the vigor of life was prostrated by a painful ailment, which last Sabbath made him enter his final sabbath, at the age of forty years, two months and ten days. May Almighty God send consolation to the worthy widow, spread His protecting hand over the young orphans, and receive the soul of the departed in the regions of light among the souls of the blessed."

FOR TILLAMOOK.—The schooner J. C. Champion left this city on Friday last for Tillamook, loaded as follows: With 410 qr sacks flour; 20 kegs syrup; 12 do sugar; 25 sacks salt, 7 do coffee, 6 kegs nails; 140 pkgs. mdse. She will be here about the first of next month to load again for the same destination. Messrs. Everding & Beebe are agents.

RECORDER'S COURT.—A chain gang is urgently demanded in this city. The Chinese, Indians, negroes and white scrubs who are committed to jail from day to day from the Recorder's Court ought to be made to work on those improved streets. It would cost the city less, and be a great deal more satisfactory.

THE OLD COURT HOUSE.—Sale of the Old Court House property was postponed on Saturday last. The date of sale is announced in the advertisement. The terms of the sale have been agreed upon by the commissioners of the County Court, and will be one half cash, with six months time on the balance.

A LUXURY.—We are indebted to Messrs. Lappeus & Knowles for a fine halibut, a sample of a large supply received by them from Victoria. The Oro Fino will to-day set out a fish chowder and baked halibut lunch.

ASSESSMENT SALE.—The land delinquent for assessments in the improvement of Madison street will be sold by Marshal Hoyt to-day at 10 o'clock, in front of the County Court House.

PROTECTION ENGINE COMPANY NO. 4, have elected Mr. H. E. Cutter, the eccentric dispenser on Front street, as their foreman for the balance of the year.

GOV. WOODS.—Gov. Woods is at present in the city, and will remain, we understand, for two or three days.

BASE BALL.—The Pioneer Base Ball Club meet on their grounds this evening.

FROM WALLA WALLA

A correspondent at Walla Walla sends us the following under date of July 5th:

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH

Yesterday the good people of Walla Walla valley had a great celebration. The day opened with a gale of wind from the South, a regular Chinook, which continued all day, gaining strength all the time, like Dutch cheese. The procession was very large, and had it not been for the clouds of dust which obscured the Heavens as well as the town, it would have been a fine affair. On the picnic grounds at least 3,000 people were assembled, seats having been provided for the ladies, tables spread to accommodate 2,000 persons. The performances opened with the usual prayers and reading of the Declaration of Independence.

THE CEREMONIES ABRUPTLY CLOSED—FIRE ALARM—GREAT CONFLAGRATION AND LOSS OF PROPERTY.

James D. Mix, Esq., one of the orators, had opened his address, when the fire bells in town rang an alarm. The whole male portion of the assemblage made a break for the fire, which was found to proceed from the carpenter shop of Smith & Allen in the rear of the Masonic Hall on Alder street. In spite of all exertions the fire spread directly up the street on the east side, completely destroying two blocks, at least twenty five buildings, principally dwellings. The Masonic Hall, a fine two story building, was completely destroyed. The blacksmith shops of Abbott & Shull, and A. F. Hartman, were completely destroyed; but a small portion of the contents were saved. The carpenter shop and planing mill of Smith & Allen was entirely burned. The paint shop of C. Plucker was also destroyed; and the carpenter shop of Picard was burned to the ground. A small paint shop and two dwellings were torn down to stop the progress of the flames. The total loss is estimated at $100,000. A large number of merchants on Main street moved their goods to their fire-proof cellars, thus increasing the loss.

The fire completely ended the performances at the picnic ground, except the devouring of the provisions, which was done at once and thoroughly by those who remained after the alarm of fire. The wind died down in the evening, when the "day we celebrate" was closed by a grand display of fire works and ball.

From another source we procure the following estimate of losses:

Masonic Hall, about $7,000; Smith & Allen's shop, $1,500, two dwellings of Mr. Gardner, $2,000, two dwellings, unknown to our informant, $1,500; wagon shop, $1,000, Abbott's blacksmith shop, $2,000, blacksmith shop on the corner, $1,000; S. Rees' dwelling, $1,500, Mr. Shull's dwelling, $1,200; Charles Plucker's paint shop, carpenter shop and dwelling, $3,000, Mr. Seiber's dwelling, $1,000; four other small buildings, $1,200. These estimates of course do not include the whole amount of damages to buildings and nothing at all of the losses of goods, furniture, etc.

SENATOR NYE'S SPEECH.—The Carson Appeal has the following:

A letter from a well known Nevadan in Washington assures us that Senator Nye's speech, in which he confounded the President's champions and exposed the utter falsity of "my policy," is universally conceded to have been the most powerful assault that has yet been brought to bear against the President, and is an evidence of its estimated value as a party instrument—a campaign document—he states that the National Union Committee have ordered a half million copies; that the Loyal League of New York has ordered one hundred thousand; that Congressmen, in their individual capacity, have contracted for fifty thousand more: and that he is told at the Congressional Globe office that no speech of modern times has reached as immense an edition as this.

THE LIBERAL VICTORY IN OREGON.—Now that the official returns of the recent electioneering contest in the State of Oregon are published, we find that President Johnson and his party have been defeated. Our morning contemporary, the Chronicle, a few days ago, announced, with a kind of jubilation, that the Johnson party had carried the State; but the result proves that Congress has obtained another victory, and that Oregon has made another advance in the path of liberty and progress. The Republican triumph in the State election will secure a Republican Senator in the place of the present supporter of Johnson, J. W. Nesmith. This gentleman was a bitter opponent of Mr. Lincoln, and has been generally antagonistic to every scheme for eradicating slavery. The defeat of his party redounds to the credit of Oregon.—Victoria Evening Telegraph.

HEAD CENTER STEPHENS.—An Irish paper states that James Stephens has placed his wife and sister-in-law as boarders in the Sacre Cœur Convent, in Paris, during his absence in America, where he says he will remain three months and then return. The establishment is an expensive one, but Stephens declares that he "did not care for the cost." A correspondent of an English paper, writing from Brest, says that as the Napoleon III put in the harbor on her way to New York, a gunboat belonging to the English navy cast anchor opposite the Vieux Port. The Napoleon III had on board the Head Center Stephens, who sailed in company with a very pretty-looking young lady, whose fashionable attire bespoke a French origin, and who excited considerable admiration among the younger portion of the passengers.

TRICHINA.—A terrible case of trichina occurred in Marion, Iowa, last month. Eight members of the family of Bermer, a merchant of that place, were taken sick four weeks previously with this disease and on the 3d, two of them died. Examination showed the worms throughout the muscles to the number of three thousand to the square inch. The remaining six were in the agonies of death.

SAM. PATCH, JR.—An adventurous fellow named Ludlow, from Winchester, Ky., attempted to cross the Covington and Cincinnati bridge lately. When about half way across he fell into the river, and that was the last heard from him.

All Persons should test the merits of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequalled as a tonic and invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. je20 HODGE, CALEF, & Co., 97, Front St

The reason why so many die with Consumption is because they neglect to use the proper remedy in season. When the system is first attacked with a cough, oppression of the chest, or seated pains in the breast, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will cause the phlegm to raise, heals the irritated parts and restores the system to health. S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of Impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 632 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

THAT OLD GREENBACK CASE!

I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes at Par (and have been since Dec. 17, 1862, for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public, that

JACOB MAYER

Leased the building of me Feb. 17, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were Cash. Since the date above stated, I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantages of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants for such costly buildings as the one referred to above.

THE POLICY THAT HAS RESTORED TRAITORS TO POWER

In the Senate on the 10th of May Mr Wilson of Massachusetts in reply to Doolittle of Wisconsin exposed this policy and its monstrous results in a speech of great power, of which the following is an extract

The action of the people of Wisconsin in regard to the Senator is the most striking evidence of our time of the love of our people for liberty, justice and democracy. Does the Senator expect to go back to these people and have them reverse their action? Does he believe he can elect a single member of Congress from that State by the votes of the Republicans who will support the policy indicated by the President and oppose the action of Congress? Does he believe he can elect a Representative in his State by Republican votes to the Legislature that will do it? Every victory won by that Senator and by the Senator from Pennsylvania over us is to be won by co-operation with the men who stood on the Chicago platform in 1864, pronounced the war a failure, and denounced Abraham Lincoln as a tyrant

Sir, I know not what we have done that God should send afflictions upon us I know not why the hearts of loyal devoted, and true men that have been wrung with anguish during five years of bloody strife should be made longer sorrowful. We put this Administration in power We took Mr Johnson placed him on the ticket with Abraham Lincoln when he had not a vote in America to give us We did not nominate him because he would give us strength or power He had proved true to the country when his State, section and political friends proved false he rendered service to the country, and we recognized it We had hundreds of able men in the field and in the civil councils, but we passed by them and nominated him We put aside the ever faithful Hannibal Hamlin, by the votes of his own New England, to nominate Mr. Johnson. We put this Administration in power, and it went into power to do precisely this to put down this rebellion, to cement the Union to put down slavery to exterminate it root and branch, to make the bondmen citizens of the Republic, and clothe them with the rights of manhood Sir, I say to the Senator from Wisconsin who talks so much of suffrage, that one year ago, after the surrender of Kirby Smith it was in the power of the Administration to impose just such terms as it believed the good of the country required upon the rebel States They were defeated, conquered, humiliated They expected some punishment for their crime of treason They expected the bondmen would be put under the protection of just and equal laws Many of their leading men not only expected suffrage, but were ready for it A systematic effort was made last spring to tone down the sentiment of the country Sir, had the Administration seized that glorious opportunity we could have established impartial suffrage, we could have proclaimed universal amnesty, these seats would have been filled, and law and order, harmony and peace, would have reigned all over the country

But the Senator from Wisconsin told us that this Administration was pursuing precisely the policy of Mr Lincoln. I deny it altogether Mr Lincoln organized Tennessee by the loyal men of Tennessee Traitors had to take the back seat He organized Louisiana by the loyal men of Louisiana, although their numbers were not many In the State of Louisiana they made a constitution emancipating slaves, leaving it to the legislature to fix suffrage, established nine hours as the measure of time of a day's work, and they made liberal provisions for education They made one of the most liberal constitutions ever framed in America. Our friends told us that the Legislature would give suffrage, and the moment we had the relations restored here that suffrage would come to the freed people. Some of us thought so and if we had admitted them and the war had continued, I do not doubt it would have been so. What is the result under this Administration? They have elected two Senators in place of the men elected by the Legislature under Mr Lincoln They have elected five Representatives, all of them rebels. Not one of them can take the oath All their State officers are rebels.

Tennessee, Arkansas and Louisiana were organized under Mr Lincoln by the loyal men of those States They went for freedom. They adopted a progressive policy, not so fast as we desired, nor so far, but still it was all in the right direction. Some of us thought it would be safe to admit their Senators and Representatives, others thought otherwise I am content with the result But what has been the organization under this Administration? Mr. Lincoln, with Mr. Johnson's approval, organized the States that he organized with loyal men He compelled the rebels to take, as Mr. Johnson well said, "the back seats" The Legislature organized by the loyal men of Virginia in the days of Mr. Lincoln, selected Mr. Underwood and Mr Segar to represent the State in the Senate of the United States Both of these gentlemen now are and have been devotedly loyal to the Union. Of the delegation of eight members to the House chosen under the reconstruction policy of Mr. Johnson, two signed the secession ordinance and were active rebels during the rebellion Mr Chandler, of the Norfolk district, has ever been loyal. Three only of the delegation, I am assured, can conscientiously take the prescribed oath The three Judges of the Court of Appeals, recently appointed by Judge Pierpont, and sixteen judges of the circuit court, were active rebels to the end of the war. One only of the nineteen judicial nominations made by Gov. Pierpont was a loyal man, and he was rejected by the Legislature, receiving only nine votes. Every State officer elected by the Legislature of Virginia at its recent session was an active rebel. No Union man stood any chance whatever to receive any office at the hands of that Legislature.

North Carolina was organized by the election of Governor Worth, a rebel, over Governor Holden, professedly loyal, the election of a Legislature that elected two United States Senators who cannot take the required oath, and by the election of an unbroken delegation of disloyal men to the House of Representatives. South Carolina was reconstructed by the election of Mr. Orr, a disloyal civilian, over Wade Hampton, a disloyal soldier, by the election of Perry and Manning, identified with the rebellion, to the Senate of the United States, and a delegation to the House of Representatives, none of whom can take the oath, unless it be Governor Aikin.

Reconstructed Georgia sends the rebel Vice President, Alexander H Stephens, and the unrepentant rebel, Herschel V Johnson to the Senate, and an entire delegation of traitors to the House of Representatives. Unrepentant rebels reorganized the government of Florida, elected a disloyalist for Governor, one Senator and her Representative, and sent Governor Marvin, a loyal man, to fill the term that expires on the 4th of March next. Judge Marvin was elected Senator for that brief period as a matter of policy, but he has not the shadow of a chance for re-election Reconstructed Alabama made Robert M Patton a bitter secessionist, Governor, and elected Lewis E Parsons and George S Houston, Senators of the United States, although it was admitted that they could not take the prescribed oath of office Langdon, a bitter rebel; Freeman, a colonel in the rebel army; Battle, a brigadier general in the rebel army; and two other secessionists, one of whom was a member of the rebel congress, to the Congress of the United States.

Reorganized Mississippi elected General Humphries, of the rebel army, Governor over Mr Fisher, supposed to be partially loyal; Governor Sharkey, who may be able to take the oath, and General Alcorn, of the rebel service, Senators of the United States; Colonel Reynolds, of the rebel army, Mr. Pirson, Mr. Harrison, and Mr. West, so compromised by the rebellion that they cannot take the oath of office, and Mr Peyton, a consistent Union man to the House of Representatives

Louisiana, reorganized under Mr. Lincoln by her few loyal men, passed under the policy of Mr Johnson into the hands of her leading secessionists Her Legislature, pronounced by Governor Wells in a recent telegraphic dispatch to the President to be in favor of reactionary measures, elected Mr Hunt and Mr Boyce, who registered themselves when General Butler had command of New Orleans as enemies of the country, United States Senators to crowd out Mr Hahn and Mr Cutler, elected by her loyal Legislature. She elected to the House of Representatives, Mr Martin, a register of voters under the rebel government Jacob Barker editor of the Advocate, twice suppressed for disloyalty, Robert C Wickliffe, of the rebel army who was captured at Port Hudson Mr King and Mr Ray, active and influential secessionists

Texas has not completed the work of reconstruction and reorganization Governor Hamilton, one of the truest and noblest Union men of the South and a few true and tried Union men are bravely struggling to make Texas loyal to the Union and to liberty but I fear they are struggling in vain In a few weeks the government of Texas will pass into the hands of unrepentant rebels and disloyal men will be selected to represent her in the Congress of the United States Of fourteen Senators chosen in the States reconstructed under Mr Johnson's policy two only, Governor Marvin and Judge Sharkey, can take the oath of office Of the Representatives chosen from the seven States five only can take the oath prescribed by the laws of the country

By the election of these Governors and Legislatures, these Senators and Representatives, the people of these States have manifested in the most signal manner that they are unrepentant though subjugated rebels Tried, true, and loyal men are proscribed hunted down put under the ban of public opinion. Can that policy that has put down the loyal men of the rebel States and clothed rebels with power [illegible] by a patriotic people or their representatives? The late rebel States are a part of our common country within the Union, subject to the authority of the Government Their people are as amenable to the laws of the country as they were the day they raised the standard of rebellion. They undertook to break up the Union and establish a government of their own, they fought four years to dismember the Union, and they signally and ingloriously failed

These States are members of the Union, but their practical relations with the Government are not yet completely established The demand is now made and persistently pressed upon the country that these States that have defiantly chosen unrepentant secessionists shall be clothed with political power that they shall come into these Chambers without any conditions, qualifications, or reservations From the Potomac to the Rio Grande, ninety five out of every hundred of the loyal men are earnestly opposed to this demand These loyal men of the South wronged, outraged, and oppressed are vehemently opposed to that policy that allows rebels to mock and brand them for their fidelity to their country Tennessee, the President's own State, is strongly opposed to this policy which tends to make treason respectable and loyalty odious"

When the Presidential policy was inaugurated the nation was comforted by the assurance that it was but an experiment that if it failed, the Congress, the representatives of the people could correct all errors and mistakes. Mr. Seward more than once telegraphed that the final action was in the Congress of the United States, but when Congress met in December last, when it manifested its intention to investigate to examine, to exercise its high powers, Democratic presses and politicians rained upon Congress their fierce denunciations But cheered by the potential voice of the people, has investigated and examined, and will I trust, fearlessly discharge the high duties imposed upon it by the needs of the country Let Congress promptly submit to the people a Constitutional amendment not to pay the debts incurred in support of the rebellion, not to pay for four and a half million slaves emancipated, not to permit one man in the rebel States to be equal in the Electoral College and in the House of Representatives to two men in the loyal States, and to admit any rebel State when it accepts that amendment, and the people will sustain the action of the Thirty-Ninth Congress and elect another House of Representatives that will adhere with unwavering fidelity to the amendment till it shall become a part of the organic law of the land

"CROW, CHAPMAN, CROW."—The New Albany Ledger has the annexed

The recent death of J Page Chapman has revived his supposed connection with the "Crow, Chapman crow," story He has been alluded to as the original "Crow Chapman," which is not the case. We happen to be familiar with all the circumstances relating to the famous sobriquet In 1840 Joseph Chapman was the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in Hancock county Chapman was a man of despondent temperament, and the hard cider terrors rendered him especially dejected Instead of encouraging and cheering his friends it was his habit to impress upon them the certainty of defeat and the general gloomy prospects Knowing this disposition of Chapman, George Pattison, at that time editor of the Indiana Democrat, at Indianapolis, wrote to Sebastian, Postmaster at Greenfield, a letter, in which he used the words, "Tell Chapman to crow, for we have much to crow over" The late Thomas D Walpole, at that time an active Whig politician of Hancock county, happened to see this letter, and took a copy of it which was sent to the Indianapolis Journal for publication, it being considered as evidence that the Van Buren party were in extremis, and that these instructions to "crow" were a last resort for a sinking party Pattison's letter was published in every Whig paper in the country, and it was not long before the Chapmans of the Wabash Enquirer took it up, hoisted a rooster at the head of their columns, and came to be regarded as the original Crow Chapmans. The facts are, however, as we have stated them The original Chapman, of Hancock county, died in Mexico during our war with that country, he being in some way connected with the army

HOW RECONSTRUCTED REBELS FEEL —The Fayetteville (N C) News thus frankly and fairly expounds the ruling phase of South Carolina loyalty

The men who took these oaths, and who became citizens of the United States, and who have been obedient and faithful and loyal to the laws, are not at heart friends to the Government of which they are subjects. They were defeated by the United States in an attempt to perfect a long cherished scheme which must have resulted in the greatest benefit and advantage to themselves They were human, and could feel nothing but bitterness for those whose triumph was the ruin of their hopes and the blasting and crushing of their aspirations. They do not love the Government of the United States, the "stars and stripes" excite no emotions of pride in their bosoms, for they have seen it trailing in defeat too often, as their starry crossed battle flag waved victorious in the sunlight. * * They have no veneration for the Government, no love for the flag, no feeling of security for their interests, no very great desire to continue under the Government than is necessarily compelled by coercion. If they had the power to establish a Confederacy before they were whipped they would have established it, and it is reasonable to believe that if they could establish it now they would do so, but for their oaths and allegiance Those oaths were to the effect that they would support the Constitution Should they ever be required to do more, or should the Constitution be subverted, those oaths are worth nothing.

FALSE CALVES AND TILTING HOOPS.—The Mound City correspondence of the Memphis Argus says

"These institutions are much in vogue in the Mound City Despite the sneers of the press and the impudent stare of the men, the women folks persist in wearing them Some days ago, an inveterate wag in this city discovered that his wife had received a very extensive wardrobe of this kind He used every endeavor to dissuade her from exposing herself in extravagant, riggery, but, as she was rather good looking and disposed to be rapid, she insisted on displaying herself muchly in the agonizing fashion He met her on the street where she was sailing along with all sail spread, a high headed craft, and producing considerable sensation Taking the dear little thing in custody he whispered to her that her hoops were disarranged, and she stopped in a popular resort for a moment, while he adjusted them. Taking advantage of his opportunity, he cut a considerable opening in one of the artificial calves, and the sawdust stuffing began to leak All unconscious of the fact that her leg was dwindling away and that she was leaving a stretch of sawdust in her track she proudly swung along, until a friend informed her of her accident"

THE CANVAS IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The New York Tribune says

The Baltimore American states that Hiester Clymer is to be withdrawn as a candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, and some one put up instead whose record will not turn the stomachs of such "conservatives" as Cowan and Doolittle, who are parties to the arrangement This is as it should be It is not fair to General Geary to let him run alone. Do put up somebody who can make a race, and not let the election go by default.

FRAUDS ON THE REVENUE.—It has been ascertained that great frauds are practiced in San Francisco upon the Internal Revenue Department The charges according to an exchange, are that some of the employes of the Department are in partnership with the distillers, sharing profits and in other instances bribes are accepted from persons who are manufacturing spirits, with a view to defrauding the United States out of the two dollars per gallon excise tax The temptations to dishonesty by distillers and Government officers are very great, for the tax upon a single barrel of whisky is some $84

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE —A Washington letter writer says that some of the shrewd speculators in gold who have turned an honest penny during the past fortnight, declared that if the bounty bill is passed, and several other calculations are realized gold will advance to 200 at least before checking its upward tendency One thing is certain, that even with the moderate increase of rates in the price of gold, prices of everything that you are compelled to buy are keeping pace with the rate at which gold is marching on

A RUSH AFTER DANA'S MANTLE Since Charles A Dana left the Chicago Republican the proprietors of that journal have received so many applications for the post of editor, that they have published the following notice in that paper "All persons applying for the position of editor of the Republican will be required to subscribe for the daily for one year, price $10 in advance By the adoption of this rule we expect to give our paper the largest circulation of any journal in the West."

Matters in Tennessee

Correspondence of the N Y Tribune

NASHVILLE May 5th On Monday April 30, I was one of a party of twenty Yankees who visited Murfreesboro The Stone River battle field is three miles this side of the city of Murfreesboro which is thirty one miles south east of Nashville, on the Chattanooga road. The battle field is over four miles long and one and a half miles broad The surface is mostly nearly level and seems to have been in places wooded

Here, in December 1, 1862 our army under Rosecrans was attacked by the rebels under Bragg The first day's fighting was terribly against us The rebels turned our right wing, and doubled us back on the railroad in rather a confused heap The second day both armies rested On January 2d Breckinridge swung their whole force against our left wing, and at first pressed us back, but our men rallied and drove him over Stone river The rebels then fell back and we occupied Murfreesboro It is said that our army suffered so severely that it strongly suspected it was whipped, when the retreat of the enemy showed that the victory was with us Our loss was 20,03 per cent of our forces

The cemetery covers 10 acres, and is to be enclosed with a substantial wall, four and one half feet high Over 5,000 are now interred there, of whom the largest number from any one State over 1,000, are Ohioans But three or four are from Massachusetts Where the friends do not furnish a stone the Government will erect one of Chattanooga marble, three feet high one half the length being above ground, one foot wide, five inches thick rounded at the top, with the name and regiment of the soldier at the top Here and there are rough head stones, which their comrades of the fallen carved and put down during or after the fight. The following is a sample of the inscriptions on such stones "H Robbins, Co. E, Thirty seventh Indiana"

They began to inter the soldiers by States but General Thomas concluded that such a division would savor a little of sectionalism, and so the soldier of the East and the soldier of the West sleep intermingled, alike soldiers of the Republic Two of us had planned a walk across the country to the Decatur road to find "the natives at home," but about noon it began to rain very hard so we contented ourselves with a jaunt to Murfreesboro, which was sufficient to drench us thoroughly The tender shoot of cotton plant, very much like that of buckwheat, was everywhere sprouting There was hardly a house on the road save the mud and log huts of the negroes. I remember just one field which was beginning to be colored, and trees were very scarce The citizens charge our troops with wanton devastation with, I fear, some foundation At one point in our walk we counted fourteen forts within a radius of one third of a mile.

The "City" of Murfreesboro contains two or three thousand people. It has a fine Court house but a thrifty, untasty appearance In common with other places in this region, Murfreesboro seems to be cursed with an excess of whisky. The abundance of drinking saloons and the faces on the street are the proof By the way Waltz, in his Anthropology, urges that whisky-drinking is sapping the stamina of the American people

On Tuesday, May 1st, visited Franklin This place is twenty miles from Nashville, on the Decatur railroad The landscape along the road was very charming—broad, rolling grass meadows, and large, plowed fields, with dark, rich soil, alternated with groves of tall, straight, thickly leaved trees, free from underbrush All along the road we saw colored women at work with the men in the field

One of our party was an officer in the battle here, October 31, 1864 commanding a section of an Illinois battery Our forces numbered 21,000 those of Hood, 12 000 We had arrived from Columbus the night before, in considerable disorder In the earlier days of the war the Lieutenant said we should have simply rested on our arms, but our men taught by disaster, threw up a line three and a half feet high, resting at either end on Harpeth river, The Lieutenant, who was in the battle of Chickamauga, said that such a line there would have given us the victory The enemy had to charge our line over a half mile of open field. We had twenty guns in position, while the enemy seemed to have but two which were speedily silenced The attacks began at about 4 p. m., and had nearly ceased by six, but the carnage of those two hours was terrible. Our killed and wounded numbered 2,200, while their loss was 10,000 Our Lieutenant's battery was where the battle was hottest Near by were some buildings. On their exposed sides there was scarcely a square foot not pierced with shot or shell When the "Johnnies" found they could not carry the breastworks, rather than venture a return across the open field, they would lie down in the trenches outside; but our men pointed their muskets down and shot them lying there The rebels soon tired of this, and indicated a surrender by tying rags to the ends of their guns. Our men jerked them in, gave them a hearty kick and sent them to the rear.

Just outside of Franklin is a Confederate cemetery. On the head-board of a Confederate, near the depot, a "sympathizer" had written, "Sleep on, dear rebels, until the last trump shall call you to happiness and immortality"

Talked with a Mr ———, who seemed to be a leading merchant He was always for the Union until the North tried to get up a new Union, with a new Constitution, which didn't give equal rights; he was always for equal rights the worst thing ever happened to the negro was being set free; the free niggers wouldn't work, would start off well enough for a few days, then would up and off, everything was quiet; there were no troops in the town, a Nashville nigger came down from Nashville to talk to their niggers, they came out with a drum an ex rebel Captain took his knife and quietly cut out the drum's head of course we knew they couldn't have the niggers drumming about the streets, but everybody was kind to them, nobody opposed the freedmen's school he had rather hire than own niggers, he had seven die during the war, one a good carpenter all a dead loss—thousands of dollars, he now paid an old nigger woman $40 a year and board, she to pay her doctor's bill, and a nigger man and wife, with two children, $150, house board and fuel.

Dined at a dingy, dirty hotel, with a muddy front yard and eleven hogs in it loose Saving the inevitable grease the meal was quite good Was late, and my companion was a burly, swarthy, butternut dressed man, quite pleasant and intelligent, afterward learned that he was Judge He had been one of Forrest's men in eleven States during the war got into Virginia, where the thermometer went down to 15° below zero could look over into Maryland, but that was the farthest North he could get Forrest was a brute, didn't know what a gentleman was, but would stand by his friends, said the blacks were generally working well, better than before they were free; his sister had tried five white servants, but they were so deceitful and shiftless she had gone back to the niggers, he told her perhaps they didn't know how to treat white servants they were so used to putting all white races on a level There was no special objection to selling freedmen land, but the land was owned by wealthy men, who didn't want to sell to anybody, and that had been the curse of the region before the war A poor man had no show. After he went out, a colored waiter began to talk, commencing, as is common with the negroes here, by remarking, "Peared like he'd seen me afore, he knew I was a Northerner as soon as he saw me the colored people were well off hadn't a fair chance yet altogether, but didn't 'spect all to onst, guessed all would be right in a year or two

Visited a colored school of one hundred and fifty pupils taught by three colored persons It was intermission, but we saw the Principal a sensible, gentlemanly colored man neither fawning nor pompous, a native of New Haven, employed by the American Missionary Association The agents of this society are working with great fidelity and success all through this section

Met another Ethiopian with a ragged coat, dirty shirt and motley pants which I found it very difficult to meet in front as all respectable pants should do He was going to teach, when the pupils got into the higher branches, botany and such like He had got up a school at H——— but the rowdies burnt his school house There was no danger, was there, that Johnson would turn rebel? The colored people were afraid they should be re enslaved, but of course they need not fear, need they? He showed us a place which he had bought in the village It was a slim, little house with outbuildings and some fine fruit trees He was to pay $900 within two years He evinced considerable education and intelligence.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation they stand until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured first and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, and to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

DR. CHAS. H. TOZER'S
PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
N. E. Cor. Jackson and Kearney Sts.,
SAN FRANCISCO.

THE GREAT ERADICATOR OF SPECIAL COMPLAINTS, FORMERLY OF LOCKE HOSPITAL, LONDON, EIGHT YEARS IN SACRAMENTO, AND THE LAST THREE YEARS IN SAN FRANCISCO,

DR. TOZER'S

Experience is of forty years standing, and during that time has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all those diseases generally known as Venereal or Chronic.

It is impossible here to mention all the diseases with which he is familiar; some, perhaps, will not be out of place. The most formidable, the most destructive to mankind is Self-Abuse The brain [illegible] the seat of the disease the whole system suffers in [illegible] I will here enumerate some of the symptoms [illegible] that those afflicted may be able to form an opinion in regard to their complaints, and seek advice in time thereby saving themselves a world of suffering Nervous Debility, Loss of Memory, Pain in the Limbs and Back, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling of the Limbs, Headache, and an Aversion to Genial Society, especially that of Females. There are a great many more, but these are [illegible], and should you be suffering from any of them, call on DR. TOZER, and he will cure you in a short time, without any interruption in your business—or state your case by letter, and there will be no occasion for your calling at the office is another formidable enemy to health Send for one of my circulars on that disease, and inform yourself of its terrible results. The worst cases cured in a few days.

Venereal Diseases

In all their various forms, either Primary, Se[illegible] or Hereditary, completely eradicated from the system. Your constitution being restored to perfect health, there will be no danger of handing down to your children that terrible disease known as Scrofula.

Syphilitic Disease

As it presents itself on this coast, is of a more [illegible] character than that seen in the Atlantic States, arising from the fact of its being a compound of Spanish, Chinese and Sandwich Island disease Those of you who have visited the two latter countries [illegible] the dreadful effects of it on both the [illegible] population. It requires altogether [illegible] treatment.

The Old Formulas

Of Ricord, Actel and Bostwick are of little avail, except to dry up the disease on the surface, leaving the poison in the blood, which, sooner or later, will show itself as a secondary disease in an aggravated form. These facts I have learned by experience, and think that I can say without boasting that I have seen more [illegible] these diseases than any other physician in California, dating as it does from 1849 It becomes you, therefore, to think well, before you employ a physician.

Who is the proper one to consult—an old experienced one or one who has recently settled amongst you?

My Plan is Purely Vegetable,

Destroying the disease and purifying the blood, so that there is no danger of secondary symptoms.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia,

And diseases arising from the use of Mercury, such as pains in the shin-bones, swelling of the different joints of the body, running sores, etc., etc., and impurities of the blood, cured in a short time by the use of my VEGETABLE MIXTURES, known only to myself.

Diseases Peculiar to Females,

Such as Retention, Painful Menstruation, etc., etc., have been my study for a great number of years, and I can safely promise a perfect cure in a short time.

Do not be deterred from calling on Dr. TOZER from delicacy or a fear of exposure, as the Doctor is a man in whom you can trust, and all cases are treated with the strictest secrecy.
